RECONSTRUCTED BIOGRAPHY

One corpñ , no harmonization, gaps declared

RBS · ANCHOR QUR · SINGLE CORPUS

ABSTRACT. Every verse of the Quran that touches ‘Īsā ibn Maryam AS, swept by match-class, halo-expanded to its immediate context, sequenced under printed warrants, and rendered as one continuous life with the scripture verbatim as the spine and the connective prose visibly subordinate throughout. The Gospel corpus is excluded by the binding and is not used to fill a single gap. Two accounts of the annunciation stand inside the corpus itself and are printed as parallel branches rather than merged. Interiority renders only where the text reports it, which for this subject is twice, and the second instance is a declaration that the interior is not available. The artifact closes on a ledger of every verse used and a Silence Map, which records that the corpus supplies no date, no place-name, no ruler, no named disciple, no narrated miracle, no line of the Gospel it says was given, and no death scene, and that these are properties of the corpus rather than gaps in the assembly.

I. MOVEMENT ONE · THE ATTESTATION SWEEP

Reading policy. All renderings are this instrument’s own, made against the Arabic. No single modern translation is reproduced. Scripture prints bold and carries its citation. Connective prose prints regular. The two never merge inside a sentence, so that stripping every regular-weight word leaves a citable text.

Binding. Anchor QUR, sole corpus. The Gospel and patristic corpora are outside the binding by instruction and contribute nothing here, not as source, not as control, and not as gap-filler.

NAMED, Ġ÷. Twenty-five occurrences: Q 2:87, 2:136, 2:253; 3:45, 3:52, 3:55, 3:59, 3:84; 4:157, 4:163, 4:171; 5:46, 5:78, 5:110, 5:112, 5:114, 5:116; 6:85; 19:34; 33:7; 42:13; 43:63; 57:27; 61:6, 61:14.

TITLED, al-Muġġ. Eleven occurrences: Q 3:45; 4:157, 4:171, 4:172; 5:17 twice, 5:72 twice, 5:75; 9:30, 9:31.

TITLED, other. Ibn Maryam, son of Maryam AS, twenty-three times and almost always bound to the name or the title. ‘abd Allāh, servant of Allah ﷻ, at Q 19:30 and Q 4:172. nabġ, prophet, at Q 19:30. ruġ š l, messenger, at Q 4:157, 4:171, 5:75, 61:6. kalima, a word, at Q 3:45 and 4:171. rš tun minhu, a spirit from Him, at Q 4:171. wajġh, honoured, and min al-muqarrabġn, of those brought near, at Q 3:45. mub÷rak, blessed, at Q 19:31. ÷ya, a sign, at Q 19:21, 21:91, 23:50, 43:59. raṭma, a mercy, at Q 19:21. mathal, an example, at Q 3:59 and 43:57-59.

ADDRESSED. Divine second-person speech to him at Q 3:55, Q 5:110, and Q 5:116. Human second-person speech to him at Q 5:112, on the tongue of the disciples. Four addresses in the whole corpus, and three of the four are set at the Day of Judgment rather than in the life.

UNNAMED-IDENTIFIED, admitted under Law 6 and never load-bearing alone. Q 21:91, her son, in the notice of the one who guarded her chastity. Q 66:12, the Maryam AS notice, in which the breath is mentioned and the son is not. Q 23:50, the son of Maryam, titled rather than named, on the elevated ground. Each is marked where used.

Total. Roughly ninety verses carry him, of which the genuinely narrative material is far smaller, concentrated in Q 3:33-59, Q 5:110-118, and Q 19:16-36, with the terminal material at Q 4:157-159. That distribution is the first finding: the corpus gives three dense clusters and a scatter of summary formulae, not a continuous chronicle.

2. MOVEMENT TWO · THE CONTEXT HALO

SETTING before existence. Q 3:33-37, the house of ‘Imrān, the vow of the wife of ‘Imrān, the birth of a daughter where a son was expected, the naming, and the guardianship of Zakariyya AS. Without this halo the annunciation has no household and no custodian. With it, the whole account is anchored in a family already under vow.

CAUSE for the disciples. Q 3:52, the perception of disbelief, which is the trigger clause for the call to supporters and is itself the corpus's first report of his interior state.

SPEECH-FRAME. Q 5:109-110, the opening of the assembly scene on the Day of Judgment, which frames the entire recapitulation that follows. Reading Q 5:110 without this halo misplaces the fullest life-summary in the corpus into the past tense, where it does not sit.

SERIES-FRAME. Q 6:85 and Q 33:7 and Q 42:13, in each of which he appears inside a roster of messengers and carries no episode. The brevity in these places is a property of the roster form.

CONSEQUENCE. Q 57:27, the compassion and mercy placed in the hearts of his followers and the monasticism they afterward innovated, which is the only verse in the corpus reporting anything about the community after him.

DOCTRINAL FRAME, marked and excluded from the arc. Q 4:171-172, Q 5:17, Q 5:72-75, Q 9:30-31, Q 19:34-35, Q 43:57-65. These address claims made about him rather than events in his life. One of them carries a biographical datum and is drawn into the arc for that datum alone: Q 5:75, that he and his mother ate food.

3. MOVEMENT THREE · THE SEQUENCE LOCK

The corpus supplies almost no chronological markers, and this is the sharpest constraint on the run. Where a warrant exists it is printed. Where none exists the unit is held out of the arc.

EXPLICIT. Only inside the two clusters. The house of ‘Imrān precedes the annunciation, the annunciation precedes the conception, the conception precedes the birth, the birth precedes the cradle speech. Within Q 19 the chain is unbroken and is the only continuous narrative sequence in the whole attestation.

IMPLIED. The mission follows the infancy, since the corpus twice states that he spoke in the cradle and in maturity, which marks two stages without dating either. The table requires disciples already gathered. The terminal material at Q 4:157-158 stands last by its content.

UNPLACED, held out of the arc. Q 33:7 and Q 42:13, the covenant taken from the prophets, which is not locatable in a lifetime. Q 23:50, the refuge given on elevated ground with a flowing spring, which carries no time marker and cannot be attached to the birth, the ministry, or the flight without importing a chronology the corpus does not give.

FORWARD, outside the life. Q 5:110 to 5:118 entire, set at the Day of Judgment. Q 4:159, on belief before a death whose referent is grammatically contested. Q 43:61, on the knowledge of the Hour, which carries a reading variant.

A structural note the Sequence Lock forces into the open. The fullest biographical recapitulation in the corpus, Q 3:110, listing the support of the Pure Spirit, the speech in cradle and maturity, the teaching of the Book and wisdom and the Torah and the Gospel, the bird of clay, the healing, the raising of the dead, and the restraint of the Children of Israel, is not narrated in the past tense as a life. It is spoken by Allah ﷻ to him at the assembly of the Day of Judgment. The corpus's most complete account of his career is delivered in a frame after the end of the world.

4. THE LIFE · I. THE HOUSE BEFORE HIM

When the wife of ʿImrān said: My Lord, I have vowed to You what is in my womb, dedicated. So accept from me. Indeed You are the Hearing, the Knowing. (Q 3:35)

And when she delivered her she said: My Lord, I have delivered a female. And Allah ﷻ was most knowing of what she delivered, and the male is not like the female. And I have named her Maryam, and I commend her to Your protection, and her offspring, from Satan the outcast. (Q 3:36)

[Halo function: SETTING. He ﷻ present in thﷻ verse only ﷻ her offspring, inside a mother's protective clause, two generations before hﷻ birth.]

So her Lord accepted her with good acceptance and caused her to grow in good growth, and Zakariyya AS took charge of her. Whenever Zakariyya AS entered upon her in the sanctuary he found with her provision. He said: Maryam, from where is this to you? She said: It is from Allah ﷻ. Indeed Allah ﷻ provides for whom He wills without account. (Q 3:37)

[Sequencing warrant: EXPLICIT. The custodianship precedes the annunciation and establishes the household into which the announcement comes.]

5. THE LIFE · II. THE ANNUNCIATION, IN TWO ACCOUNTS

The corpus gives this event twice and the two accounts differ in the announcer, the setting, and the wording of her question. Under Law 4 they are printed as parallel branches and are not merged into a composite that exists in neither.

5.I BRANCH A · SŪRAT ĀL ʿIMRĀN

And when the angels said: Maryam, indeed Allah ﷻ has chosen you and purified you and chosen you above the women of the worlds. Maryam, be devoutly obedient to your Lord, and prostrate and bow with those who bow. (Q 3:42-43)

When the angels said: Maryam, indeed Allah ﷻ gives you good tidings of a word from Him. His name is the Messiah, ʿĪsā son of Maryam, honoured in this world and the Hereafter, and of those brought near. And he will speak to the people in the cradle and in maturity, and will be of the righteous. (Q 3:45-46)

[The name ﷻ given before the conception, and it ﷻ given ﷻ a construct: the Messiah, ʿĪsā, son of Maryam. The corpﷻ names him by hﷻ mother in the announcement itself.]

She said: My Lord, how shall I have a boy when no man has touched me? He said: Thus. Allah ﷻ creates what He wills. When He decrees a matter He only says to it Be, and it is. (Q 3:47)

5.2 BRANCH B · SŪRAT MARYAM

And mention in the Book Maryam, when she withdrew from her family to a place toward the east, and took a screen apart from them. Then We sent to her Our spirit, and it took for her the form of a well-proportioned man. (Q 19:16-17)

She said: I take refuge in the Most Merciful from you, if you are one who fears. He said: I am only a messenger of your Lord, to give you a pure boy. (Q 19:18-19)

She said: How shall I have a boy when no man has touched me and I have not been unchaste? He said: Thus. Your Lord has said: it is easy for Me, and that We may make him a sign to the people and a mercy from Us. And it is a matter decreed. (Q 19:20-21)

5.3 THE DIVERGENCE, NAMED AND NOT REPAIRED

Branch A gives al-malāʾik ika, the angels, plural, addressing her in a context continuous with the sanctuary of Q 3:37. Branch B gives raṣṣan, Our spirit, singular, taking the form of a man, at a place she has deliberately withdrawn to, eastward, behind a screen. Branch A announces the name and the titles and the future speech in cradle and maturity, and gives no birth. Branch B announces neither the name nor the titles, and gives the birth in full. Her question is close in both and not identical: Branch B adds and I have not been unchaste.

The two are not harmonised here. The instrument records that the corpus tells this once with a plural announcer and a named child and no birth, and once with a singular announcer and an unnamed child and a birth in detail, and that no verse in the corpus reconciles them.

6. THE LIFE · III. THE PALM TREE

So she conceived him, and withdrew with him to a distant place. (Q 19:22)

[Gap declaration: the corp^h gives no duration, no location, and no account of the interval. A distant place ^h the whole o- the setting.]

And the pangs of childbirth drove her to the trunk of the palm tree. She said: Would that I had died before this and been a thing forgotten. (Q 19:23)

[Attested interiority, and it ^h hers. Th^h ^h the most exposed interior line in the entire attestation and it belongs to the mother, spoken at the moment of the birth. The corp^h preserves a wish for death and non-existence in the mouth o- the one it ^h just called chosen and purified, and does not soften it.]

So he called to her from beneath her: Do not grieve. Your Lord has placed beneath you a stream. And shake toward you the trunk of the palm tree; it will drop upon you ripe dates, fresh. So eat and drink and let your eye be comforted. (Q 19:24-26)

[Reading variant, carried and not resolved. The consonantal text supports both min taḥtihā, from beneath her, and man taḥtahā, the one beneath her, and the identity of the caller ^h accordingly contested in the reading traditions between the newborn and the messenger of the preceding verses. Type C with the premise named. Nothing in the corp^h decides it and the instrument does not.]

And if you see from among humankind anyone, say: I have vowed to the Most Merciful a fast, so I will not speak today to any man. (Q 19:26)

[The instruction ^h silence, and the silence ^h what makes the next scene necessary.]

7. THE LIFE · IV. THE CRADLE

Then she came with him to her people, carrying him. They said: Maryam, you have brought a thing unheard of. Sister of Harun, your father was not a man of evil, nor was your mother unchaste. (Q 19:27-28)

So she pointed to him. They said: How can we speak to one who is in the cradle a child? (Q 19:29)

[Sequencing warrant: EXPLICIT. Her vow of silence from the preceding verse ^h the mechanism of the pointing, and the pointing ^h the mechanism o- what follows.]

His first recorded words in the corpus. He is an infant, the accusation standing against his mother is public, and what he speaks is not a defence of her but a statement of his own status and obligations.

He said: Indeed I am the servant of Allah ﷻ. He has given me the Book and made me a prophet. And He has made me blessed wherever I may be, and has enjoined upon me prayer and zakat as long as I remain alive. And dutiful to my mother, and He has not made me a tyrant, wretched. And peace is upon me the day I was born, and the day I die, and the day I am raised alive. (Q 19:30-33)

[Five clauses and a closing tricolon. The i rst word of h^h i rst speech ^h ‘abd, servant. The tricolon names three days: born, dies, raised. The corp^h states that he dies, in h^h own reported speech, in the same breath ^h the birth and the raising, and does not narrate the death anywhere.]

[Gap declaration: between th^h scene and the next unit the corp^h supplies nothing at all. No childhood, no growth, no education, no place, no age, and no interval. The next thing recorded of him ^h that he came to the Children o- Israel ^h a messenger.]

8. THE LIFE · V. THE SENDING

The corpus gives the mission twice as a commission-and-sign-list rather than as a sequence of events, and the list is the form.

And He will teach him the Book and wisdom and the Torah and the Gospel. And as a messenger to the Children of Israel: that I have come to you with a sign from your Lord. I design for you from clay the form of a bird, then I breathe into it and it becomes a bird by the permission of Allah ﷻ. And I heal the blind from birth and the leper, and I give life to the dead by the permission of Allah ﷻ. And I inform you of what you eat and what you store in your houses. Indeed in that is a sign for you, if you are believers. (Q 3:48-49)

[Every clause of the sign-list ^h a statement of capacity in the i rst person, and three of the four carry bi-idhni llāh, by the permission of Allah ﷻ, attached. Not one of the four ^h narrated anywhere in the corp^h ^h an event with a place, an occasion, or a recipient. The corp^h lists what he did and stages none o- it.]

And confirming what came before me of the Torah, and to make lawful for you some of what was forbidden to you. And I have come to you with a sign from your Lord, so be mindful of Allah ﷻ and obey me. Indeed Allah ﷻ is my Lord and your Lord, so worship Him. This is a straight path. (Q 3:50-51)

And We sent following in their footsteps 'Īsā son of Maryam, confirming what came before him of the Torah. And We gave him the Gospel, in which was guidance and light, and confirming what preceded it of the Torah, and guidance and admonition for the mindful. (Q 5:46)

[The corpn̄ states that a scripture w̄ given to him, names it, and describes it ḡ guidance and light. It quotes not one line o- it anywhere.]

And when 'Īsā son of Maryam said: Children of Israel, indeed I am the messenger of Allah ﷻ to you, confirming what came before me of the Torah and bringing good tidings of a messenger to come after me whose name is Aḥmad. But when he came to them with clear proofs they said: This is manifest magic. (Q 61:6)

And when 'Īsā came with the clear proofs he said: I have come to you with wisdom, and to make clear to you some of that over which you differ. So be mindful of Allah ﷻ and obey me. Indeed Allah ﷻ is my Lord and your Lord, so worship Him. This is a straight path. (Q 43:63-64)

[The closing formula of Q 43:64 ḡ verbatim identical to Q 3:51. The corpn̄ gives him one summary sentence and repeats it in two s̄rḡ.]

The Messiah son of Maryam was not but a messenger; messengers have passed on before him. And his mother was a woman of truth. They both used to eat food. (Q 5:75)

[Drawn from the doctrinal frame for its one biographical datum, which ḡ a statement about the body: mother and son took ordinary nourishment.]

Cursed were those who disbelieved among the Children of Israel by the tongue of Dawud AS and of 'Īsā son of Maryam. That was because they disobeyed and were transgressing. (Q 5:78)

[The only report in the corpn̄ of a curse pronounced by him, and it ḡ given ḡ a summary with no occasion attached.]

9. THE LIFE · VI. THE SUPPORTERS

But when 'Īsā sensed disbelief from them he said: Who are my supporters toward Allah ﷻ? The disciples said: We are the supporters of Allah ﷻ. We have believed in Allah ﷻ, and bear witness that we are submitted. Our Lord, we have believed in what You sent down and we have followed the messenger, so write us among the witnesses. (Q 3:52-53)

[Attested interiority, 1st instance and the only one inside the life. The verb ḡ aḥassa, he sensed or perceived. The corpn̄ reports a registration occurring inside him and gives the speech that followed from it. Thḡ ḡ the single place in the whole attestation where the reader ḡ told what he apprehended before he spoke.]

And when I inspired to the disciples: Believe in Me and in My messenger. They said: We have believed, so bear witness that we are submitted. (Q 5:111)

Believers, be supporters of Allah ﷻ, as 'Īsā son of Maryam said to the disciples: Who are my supporters toward Allah ﷻ? The disciples said: We are the supporters of Allah ﷻ. So a faction of the Children of Israel believed and a faction disbelieved. So We supported those who believed against their enemy, and they became dominant. (Q 6:114)

[Halo function: CONSEQUENCE. The corpn̄ gives the outcome of the mission in one clause: a faction believed and a faction did not. No numbers, no names, no places.]

[Not one disciple n̄ named anywhere in the corpn̄. They speak n̄ a collective, always in the plural, and are called al-ḥawāriyyūn throughout.]

10. THE LIFE · VII. THE TABLE

The one extended scene between him and his followers in the entire corpus.

When the disciples said: ‘Isā son of Maryam, is your Lord able to send down to us a table from the heaven? He said: Be mindful of Allah ﷻ, if you are believers. (Q 5:112)

[Match-class: ADDRESSED, and the only human address to him in the corpn̄. Hn̄ answer n̄ a correction of the question’s premise before any request n̄ made.]

They said: We wish to eat from it, and that our hearts be reassured, and that we may know that you have been truthful to us, and that we may be among the witnesses to it. (Q 5:113)

‘Isā son of Maryam said: O Allah ﷻ, our Lord, send down to us a table from the heaven, to be for us a festival, for the first of us and the last of us, and a sign from You. And provide for us, and You are the best of providers. (Q 5:114)

Allah ﷻ said: Indeed I will send it down to you. But whoever among you disbelieves afterward, I will punish him with a punishment such as I have not punished anyone in the worlds. (Q 5:115)

[Gap declaration, and it n̄ the most conspicuous in the corpn̄. The scene ends here. Whether the table descended, when, where, what wn̄ on it, and what the disciples did are not stated. The corpn̄ gives a request, a prayer, and a conditional promise, and closes.]

11. THE LIFE · VIII. THE PLAN AND THE RAISING

And they planned, and Allah ﷻ planned. And Allah ﷻ is the best of planners. (Q 3:54)

[No plot n̄ described. The corpn̄ gives the fact of a plan, the counter-plan, and nothing of the content of either.]

When Allah ﷻ said: ‘Isā, indeed I am taking you and raising you to Myself and purifying you from those who disbelieved, and placing those who followed you above those who disbelieved until the Day of Resurrection. Then to Me is your return, and I will judge between you concerning that over which you used to differ. (Q 3:55)

[Reading and lexical note, carried and not resolved. The participle mutawaffika n̄ built on a root whose range across the corpn̄ covers taking in full, taking in death, and taking in sleep, and the interpretive traditions divide accordingly. Type C with the premise named. The instrument prints the verse and does not select a sense.]

And for their saying: Indeed we killed the Messiah, ‘Īsā son of Maryam, the messenger of Allah ﷺ. And they did not kill him, and they did not crucify him, but it was made to appear so to them. And indeed those who differ over it are in doubt of it. They have no knowledge of it except the following of conjecture. And they did not kill him, certainly. Rather, Allah ﷻ raised him to Himself. And Allah ﷻ is Mighty, Wise. (Q 4:157-158)

[The corpn̄ states a double negation, killing and crucifixion, states shubbiha lahum, it w̄ made to appear so to them, and states a raising. It does not state what w̄ made to appear, to whom specifically, or by what means. It then characterises the dispute itself n̄ conjecture without knowledge. The mechanism n̄ supplied in the post-canonical interpretive corpora and under the Provenance Firewall none of that enters thn̄ narration. The verse n̄ printed and the corpn̄’s own silence on mechanism n̄ left standing, because killing it here would be exactly the fabrication thn̄ instrument exists to prevent.]

[The arc of the life closes here. There n̄ no death scene, no burial, no grave, and no successor.]

12. THE RECAPITULATIONS

Three passages summarise the career rather than narrate it. Printed as their own class because two of the three are formulaic and the third is set outside time.

And We gave ‘Īsā son of Maryam the clear proofs and supported him with the Pure Spirit. (Q 2:87, and again verbatim at Q 2:253)

When Allah ﷻ will say: ‘Īsā son of Maryam, remember My favour upon you and upon your mother, when I supported you with the Pure Spirit so that you spoke to the people in the cradle and in maturity. And when I taught you the Book and wisdom and the Torah and the Gospel. And when you formed from clay the likeness of a bird by My permission, and breathed into it and it became a bird by My permission. And you healed the blind from birth and the leper by My permission. And when you brought forth the dead by My permission. And when I restrained the Children of Israel from you when you came to them with the clear proofs, and those among them who disbelieved said: This is not but manifest magic. (Q 5:110)

[Halo function: SPEECH-FRAME, and thn̄ n̄ where the Sequence Lock earns its place in the run. The verse opens idh qāla llāhu, and the passage runs continuously to Q 5:118, which n̄ unambiguously the assembly of the Day of Judgment. The fullest account of hn̄ life in the corpn̄ n̄ therefore spoken to him, in the second person, after the end of the world. Every clause that in Q 3:49 he speaks in the first person n̄ capacity n̄ here spoken back to him by Allah ﷻ with bi-idhnī, by My permission, attached. The same list, twice, in two mouths, and neither occurrence n̄ a narrated event.]

Then We sent following in their footsteps Our messengers, and We followed with ‘Īsā son of Maryam, and We gave him the Gospel. And We placed in the hearts of those who followed him compassion and mercy. And monasticism they innovated. We did not prescribe it for them, only the seeking of the pleasure of Allah ﷻ. Yet they did not observe it with its due observance. (Q 57:27)

[The only verse reporting anything about the community after him, and it reports a disposition placed in them and a practice they originated.]

13. UNPLACED

Held out of the arc under the Sequence Lock and printed whole.

And when We took from the prophets their covenant, and from you, and from Nuh AS and Ibrahim AS and Musa AS and 'Īsā son of Maryam. And We took from them a solemn covenant. (Q 33:7)

He has ordained for you of the religion what He enjoined upon Nuh AS, and that which We revealed to you, and what We enjoined upon Ibrahim AS and Musa AS and ʿĪsā AS: that you establish the religion and not be divided in it. (Q 42:13)

[Why unplaced. Both set him inside a covenant among prophets that the corpn^{f} does not locate in a lifetime, and placing them anywhere in the arc would assert a chronology the text does not give.]

And We made the son of Maryam and his mother a sign, and gave them refuge on elevated ground, of rest and a flowing spring. (Q 23:50)

[Why unplaced. Match-class TITLED. No time marker of any kind. The refuge could sit after the birth, during the ministry, or at neither, and the corpn̄ supplies nothing to decide it. Attaching it to the òight after the birth n̄ a common reading and it n̄ an identii' cation, not a sequence, so it n̄ refused a place in the arc.]

And she who guarded her chastity, so We breathed into her of Our spirit, and made her and her son a sign for the worlds. (Q 21:91)

And Maryam daughter of ‘Imrān, who guarded her chastity, so We breathed into it of Our spirit. And she believed in the words of her Lord and His scriptures, and she was of the devoutly obedient. (Q 66:12)

[Match-class: UNNAMED-IDENTIFIED, fenced under Law 6. The 1st names him only η' her son; the second does not mention him at all and enters only because the breath it reports η the one the corp η elsewhere attaches to $h\eta$ conception. Neither carries a load-bearing claim alone and neither η placed in the arc.]

14. FORWARD

Outside the life and after it. Printed as its own class.

And there is none of the People of the Scripture but that he will surely believe in him before his death. And on the Day of Resurrection he will be a witness against them. (Q 4:159)

[Grammatical note, carried and not resolved. The pronoun in before his death $\eta^{\bar{}}$ ambiguous $\eta^{\bar{}}$ in the Arabic between the death of $\dot{\text{G}}\ddot{\text{v}}$ AS and the death of each individual of the People of the Scripture, and the reading traditions divide. Type C with the premise named.]

And indeed he is knowledge of the Hour, so have no doubt of it, and follow me. This is a straight path. (Q 43:61)

[Reading variant, carried and not resolved. The consonantal text supports ‘ilmun, knowledge, and ‘alamun, a sign or marker, and the referent o- the pronoun ḥ itself- contested between him and the Kuran. Type C.]

And when Allah ﷻ will say: ‘Isā son of Maryam, did you say to the people, Take me and my mother as two gods besides Allah ﷻ? He will say: Exalted are You. It was not for me to say what I have no right to. If I had said it, You would have known it. You know what is in my self and I do not know what is in Your self. Indeed You are the Knower of all that is unseen. (Q 5:116)

[Attested interiority, second and final instance, and it ḥ̣ of a wholly different kind from the first. The corpḥ̣'s one explicit reference to ḥ̣ nafs ḥ̣ a declaration that its contents are known to Allah ﷻ and stated in the same breath ḥ̣ ḥ̣ own ignorance of what ḥ̣ in the divine self. The interior ḥ̣ named and simultaneously sealed. Thḥ̣ ḥ̣ the verse the Silence Map turns on.]

I said nothing to them except what You commanded me: that you worship Allah ﷻ, my Lord and your Lord. And I was a witness over them as long as I remained among them. But when You took me up, You were the Watcher over them, and You are Witness over all things. If You punish them, they are Your servants. And if You forgive them, indeed You are the Mighty, the Wise. (Q 5:117-118)

[The last recorded words attributed to him in the corpḥ̣ are a refusal to intercede against and a refusal to demand, both, and the disposal ḥ̣ left entirely to Allah ﷻ.]

BOX 2 | THE SILENCE MAP

What the corpus does not supply. Stated so that no reader fills it, and stated without importing a single item from any corpus outside the binding.

No date. No year, no era, no regnal reference, no synchronism with any ruler or dynasty. Nothing in the corpus dates any event of this life.

No place-name. Not one. The settings are a place toward the east, a distant place, elevated ground with a flowing spring, and the trunk of the palm tree. No city, no village, no province, no country is named anywhere in connection with him.

No ruler, no state, no authority. No king, no governor, no priesthood, no council, and no occupying power appears. The opposition is those who disbelieved and a faction o- the Children o- Israel, unnamed and uncoun- ted.

No father, and the absence is the doctrine. The corpus does not withhold a father as a gap. It states the manner of the conception directly and repeatedly and makes the absence itself the point of comparison at Q 3:59, where the example given is Adam AS, created from dust.

No age, no duration. No age at any event, no length of the ministry, no interval between the cradle and the sending, and no interval between any two episodes. The corpus marks two stages of speech, in the cradle and in maturity, and dates neither.

No named disciple. The ṭaw-riyyūn speak four times and always in the plural. Not one is named, numbered, described, or individuated anywhere in the corpus.

No narrated miracle. This is the largest structural silence and it is easily missed because the signs are so familiar. The bird formed from clay, the healing of the blind from birth and the leper, the raising of the dead, and the knowledge of what is eaten and stored appear twice, at Q 3:49 and Q 5:110, and both occurrences are lists. Neither is an event. There is no occasion, no place, no recipient, no witness, and no aftermath attached to any sign in the entire corpus. The Quran states what he did and stages none of it.

No line of the Gospel. The corpus states that the Injil was given to him, names it four times, and describes it as guidance and light. It quotes nothing from it.

No outcome for the table. A request is made, a prayer is offered, and a conditional promise is given. Whether the table descended is not stated anywhere.

No death scene, no body, no grave. The corpus states that he dies, in his own reported speech at Q 19:33, and states the raising, and negates the killing and the crucifixion at Q 4:157 while stating that it was made to appear so. It does not narrate a death, does not state what was made to appear, and gives no burial and no location.

No successor. No transfer, no appointment, no charge given to anyone, and no named continuation. The one report about the later community, at Q 57:27, concerns a disposition placed in hearts and a practice they themselves innovated.

The interior, named and sealed. Interiority is attested twice. At Q 3:52 the corpus reports atassa, that he sensed disbelief, and gives the speech that followed. At Q 5:116, at the assembly after the end of the world, he states that Allah ﷻ knows what is in his self and that he does not know what is in the divine self. That is the corpus's only direct reference to his nafs, and its content is a statement that the contents are not the reader's to have. A biography assembled from this corpus cannot go inside him, and the corpus says so in his own reported voice.

BOX 3 | RATIO AND VERDICT

Ratio. Scripture carried verbatim exceeds connective prose throughout and the Law 5 ceiling holds. The Law 1 test passes: stripping every regular-weight word leaves a contiguous, correctly attributed Quranic text with its unplaced, forward, and doctrinal-frame units held in their own sections.

Interiority audit. Two instances for the subject, both attested, neither invented, and the second is a sealing rather than a disclosure. The most exposed interior line in the whole attestation belongs to Maryam AS at the palm tree and is printed as the corpus prints it.

Divergence. One intra-corpus branch pair at the annunciation, printed parallel and unmerged. Four contested readings carried with their premises named and none resolved: the caller at Q 19:24, mutawaḥḥaka at Q 3:55, the pronoun at Q 4:159, and ilmun against alamun at Q 43:61.

Binding integrity. No verse, phrase, name, place, date, or episode from outside the anchor corpus was used at any point, including at every declared gap. The excluded corpus is excluded by scope and the exclusion carries no verdict on it.

Domain guard. This artifact reads what the corpus states and how it states it. It issues no Christology, adjudicates no dispute between traditions, resolves no contested reading, and supplies no mechanism where the corpus supplies none.

The assembly. The arc holds, and it holds in an unusual shape that the sweep rather than any reading produced. What stands is a servant announced by name before conception, born under an accusation, and speaking from the cradle. What moves is a sending carried almost entirely as declaration rather than as episode: a commission, a sign-list twice given and never staged, a call for supporters triggered by a perception, one scene with those supporters, and a terminal taking whose mechanism the corpus withholds. How the two bind is a life told as testimony rather than as chronicle, whose fullest recapitulation is spoken to him after the end of the world and whose last recorded words leave every judgment to Allah ﷻ. The three do not collapse and the composition lands.
